Main Attractions in Jaipur

ALBERT HALL

The oldest museum in Rajasthan, the Albert Hall Museum boasts an extensive collection of art and historically significant artifacts. Come for the Egyptian mummy, stay to see antique coins from different periods in India's history, charming permanent exhibits of miniature paintings, 18th-century costumes worn by members of different castes, and a peculiar collection of 19th-century clay figures demonstrating all the yoga poses.

JANTAR-MANTAR

At first glance, Jantar Mantar may look to be nothing more than a bunch of larger-than-life abstract sculptures. But this is not an art gallery—it's a special collection of astronomical tools started by Rajput ruler Maharaj Sawai Jai Singh II to measure the heavens nearly 300 years ago.

CITY PALACE

City Palace has stood at the heart of the Old City of Jaipur for nearly three centuries, shortly after Maharaja Maharaj Sawai Jai Singh II decided to relocate his court from the city of Amber.

STATUE CIRCLE

Situated in the middle of a busy intersecting road, Statue Circle is reminiscent of the rich history of Jaipur. It was built as a tribute to Maharaja Sawai Jai Singh II, the founder of the city. The Statue Circle got its name from the majestic statue of Maharaja Sawai Jai Singh II that it holds.

AMAR JAWAN JYOTI

Amar Jawan Jyoti is an Indian memorial that was constructed to honour the memory of the brave soldiers who fought the Ind0-Pakistan war in 1971. The Amar Jawan Jyoti was established on 26th January 1972 under India Gate and was inaugurated by then-Prime Minister Indira Gandhi.

WORLD TRADE PARK

The Viraj Group began developing the World Trade Park project in 2008. The group's vision was to create a world-class shopping and entertainment destination that would attract both locals and tourists alike.

HAWA MAHAL

It was built in 1799 by Maharaja Sawai Pratap Singh for the court harem so that they could witness the royal processions and the street life. The exquisite pink and red sandstone 'mahal' stands out for its striking architecture, and the beautiful 'Jhaali' works on its 953 windows.

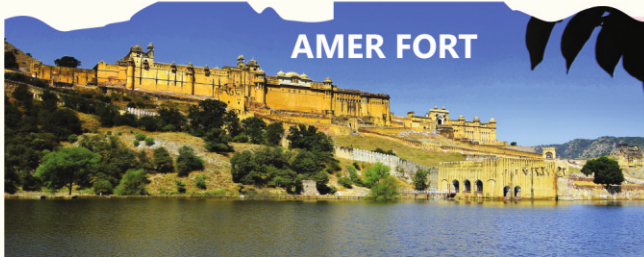

BIRLA MANDIR

It is a Hindu temple (Laksmi Narayan Temple) located in Jaipur, India and is one of many Birla mandirs. It was built by the B.M. Birla Foundation in 1988 and is constructed solely of white marble.

JAL MAHAL

Jal Mahal was built in 1799 by Maharaja Sawai Pratap Singh as a hunting lodge for his duck shooting excursions.

AMER FORT

Wonder shining on the hills of the Aravalli, Amer Fort is located at a distance of 11 km from Jaipur. The fort has earned a place in the list of the UNESCO World Heritage Sites of India.
